STATE OF MINNESOTA IN SUPREME COURT

C4-84-2150

Order Appointing
Members to the Judicial Branch
Technology Planning Committee

WHEREAS, the Judicial Branch Technology Committee was established by Supreme Court order dated December 7, 1996 and has met continuously since 1997;

WHEREAS, the Judicial Branch Technology Planning Committee is charged with the following responsibilities:

1. Plan for and implement a technology vision and technology plan for the judicial branch.
2. Serve as a centralized decision-making body for:
 - Business Practices. Determining which business practices will be supported by technology and software application.
 - Standards. Determining the operational, industry and formal standards which will be adopted by the judicial branch.
 - Prioritization. Determining the percentage of time to be allocated between current system modification and new development, and among initiatives in support of the Courts, Criminal Justice System and other public agencies.
 - Funding Requests. Recommending requests for new funds for technology initiatives, including the source of those funds.
 - Communication. Serve as the central focus for communicating internally and externally the technology vision and technology plan of the judicial branch and as a centralized point for the sharing of technology related information across the judicial system;
3. Serve as the judicial branch information resource management (IRM) steering committee.

WHEREAS, vacancies have occurred, terms of membership have expired and new representative needs have become apparent;

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, the Judicial Branch Technology Planning Committee shall consist of twenty-six (26) members appointed by the Chief Justice as follows, and who will serve until their successor is appointed and qualified:

One representative of each of the ten judicial districts appointed by the Chief Judge; one Supreme Court Justice or designee and two at large members appointed by the Chief Justice;

one Court of Appeals Judge appointed by the Chief Judge; the Supreme Court Commissioner; the Clerk of the Appellate Courts; the State Court Administrator; the Director of the Information Technology Division, two representatives of the Conference of Chief Judges appointed by the Chair of the Conference of Chief Judges; the Minnesota District Judges Association President or designee; the Minnesota Association of Court Administrators' President or designee; and one member elected from each of the four TCIS State User Groups.
